

CBS works with participants in the NDIS

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) provides a new way for you to get the support you need to live the life you want.

Community Based Support (CBS) is an NDIS provider and one of your options to receive individualised services and support. Should you receive an NDIS package, we will focus on you as an individual, working with you to achieve your goals.

The NDIS provides a wide range of individualised support in the community for people with permanent and significant disability.

CBS fully supports the 3 underpinning principles of the NDIS:

- Choice and control
- Independence
- Self-management

CBS can assist you with...

- Individual support to access community social and recreational activities
- Assistance with self-care activities
- Group based activities in a centre
- Group based community, social and recreational activities
- Home modifications
- House and/or garden maintenance
- House cleaning
- Individual life and personal skills development

Why choose CBS?

CBS has been a trusted provider of quality community care services, responding to the needs of people in Tasmania for over 25 years.

We provide a range of flexible services that supports people with disabilities and their carers to remain connected to their communities, stay living at home and to lead independent lives.

In addition to this:

- CBS is a certified NDIS service provider
- We will work with you to implement your individually tailored support plan
- Our experienced workers will work with you to achieve your goals
- You can be involved in choosing your own staff
