

Non-Executive Board Director - Vacancy

Community Based Support (CBS) is a not-for-profit Tasmanian organisation delivering aged care and disability services. We enable people to live safely in their homes and enjoy access to the community as they wish. Our work ensures quality of life is enhanced by providing a range of support services that are tailored to meet individual needs and goals to maximise independence.

We are seeking to fill two Board vacancies. Clinical governance or legal skills will be highly regarded but consideration will be given to other skillsets that may complement the current skills of the Board.

To be considered for the vacancy candidates should: -

- a) be a Tasmanian resident;
- b) provide a cover letter addressing the criteria, and which clearly outlines how the candidate possesses the skills the Board is seeking; and
- c) provide a detailed resume.
